PRESS RELEASE for Immediate Release

The Student Prince goes wild during Game Month

The wildest menus of the year in February and three Hunter's Dinners!

*There is a passion for hunting something deeply implanted in the human breast.
– Charles Dickens*

Springfield, MA – Good stories are always told around a table filled with hunters, friends, and those who enjoy a taste of the wild. All through February, The Student Prince and The Fort Restaurant will host GAME MONTH. In addition to regular menus, there will be Wild Game Lunch & Dinner Menus, plus three HUNTER'S DINNER NIGHTS with Six Course Feasts that feature the wildest meats, fish and bird exquisitely prepared by seasoned chefs. The Student Prince and The Fort will welcome guests and groups from The Springfield Sportsmen's Show, Feb. 23-25, at the Eastern States Exposition.

Andy Yee, managing partner at The Student Prince and The Fort, says Game Month is back! "We're going all out to make Game Month one of the most talked about events in the region. We're bringing the legendary un-tame spirit of Hunter's Dinners back to The Fort. We will also unleash daily Game Menus for lunch and dinner through February which belong on the pages of sportsmen's magazines. If you're a hunter, grab a beer with your hunting buddies and dig in. If you're not a hunter, experience something amazing. Game Month is back like it used to be at The Fort and it's wilder than ever!"

FEBRUARY WILD GAME MENUS have earthy appetizers like Crispy Duck Wings and Livers, Brooklyn Smoked Salmon and Game Soup. Entrées from the forest and stream include dishes prepared with boar, bison, ostrich, elk, buffalo, rabbit, kangaroo, and fish like pan-roasted tilefish.

THREE HUNTER'S DINNER NIGHTS will bring the best of the wilderness to the Hunter's tables with a complimentary starters like Bluefish or Chef's Game Paté. Six Courses include Frog's Legs, German pan-fried Rainbow Trout, Rabbit Sausage, whole roasted Wood Pigeon, Buffalo Ribeye and Venison Loins, plus hearty sides and a flaming dessert.
